

Examination upsets

It is one having the feeling for the greater cause of education in the country can remain unperturbed over the untoward and filthy developments that are now ensuing regarding examination. Leakage of question papers has become a common thing and every year this curse is growing. Answer scripts are sold in grocery shops before the publication of result.

Examinations, particularly degree level examination are never held according to schedule. Frequent change of exam date is as natural as anything. And when it is held after repeated shifting, publication of results becomes almost impossible, throwing thousands of students in jeopardy. Now the result of Degree Examination of the Chittagong University is yet to be published even after the seven months of its holding. Moreover, the inclusion of questions from the chapter not included in the syllabus is another nuisance. Recently in HSC Examination of the Comilla Board, 2 short questions were set in 2nd Paper, English Literature from William Cowper's "On the receipt of my mother's picture." But actually this poem was not included in the syllabus.

All these aforesaid nuisance regarding examinations sometimes throw us in utter dismay and dampen our enthusiasm for doing hard endeavour to have better results. The inviolability, the sacrosanctness of examinations should be restored immediately.
