AM College declared closed sine die

Our Correspondent

MYMENSINGH, Feb 13:—Government Ananda Mohan College has been declared closed for an indefinite period last night following untoward situation on the college campus yesterday. The decision was taken at an emergency meeting by the college authority last night.

The teachers alleged that some unruly examinees and outsiders attacked them when they were collecting the examination scripts of honours part 3 examinations yesterday at morning shift. The unruly students snatched away the answer scripts, tore and burnt to ashes.

Some teachers were also injured during the attack. After the incident honours part 3 examinations were postponed.

Ananda Mohan College Teachers Association (AMCTA) brought out a silent procession today and held a protest rally in front of Press Club. They also announced fresh action plans including march to Dhaka and abstention from classes.

Dhaka University Teachers Association and Bangladesh Agricultural University Teachers Samity expressed their sympathy and support to the movement.
