

অবিষ্কৃত ... 10 NOV. 1990 ...

পুস্তক ... কলাম ... স্কুল ...

175

7-day APSU programme from tomorrow

Staff Correspondent

Sarbadaliya Chhatra Oikya (all party student unity) in a meeting on Friday announced seven-day programme as part of its movement programme against the present government. Presided over by Habibur Rahman Habib, the meeting was also addressed by Khairul Kabir Khokan, General Secretary Dhaka University Central Students' Union (DUCSU).

The programme of the all-party student unity begins tomorrow (Sunday) with the students participation in classes.

Other programmes are as follows November 12—holding of rallies and wearing of black badges by students all over the country, November 13—student-workers rally at Tejgaon, November 14—demonstrations in front of upazila, district and union parishads headquarter in protest against Education Ordinance 1990 and price hike of essential items, November 15—students-workers rally at Tongi, November 16—students peasant rally in Narsingdi, November 17—Gherao of official residence of the Ministers in Bailey Road and on November 18—joint solidarity demonstration by students and workers.