APSU leaders hold talks with CU 'V-C

Chittagong Office

CHITTAGONG, July 24.—Except the Islami Chhatra Shibir and its allies, the leaders of the component bodies of the All-Party Students Unity (APSU) today conferred with the Vice-Chancellor of Chittagong University at the latter's residence to discuss the law and order situation and other related issues on the campus.

The Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Alamgir Mohammad Shirajuddin, is understood to have made a passionate appeal to the leaders of all student bodies to maintain peace on the campus so that the students can pursue their studies unhindered. The Vice-Chancellor sought all out cooperation from all to maintain a situation conducive to healthy academic life.

The Islami Chhatra Shibir through a strongly worded Press statement castigated the Vice-Chancellor for convening a meeting of all-party student bodies keeping aside the invitation to the leaders of the Sangrami

Chhatra Oikya and Sammilito Chhatra Oikya Parishad which are well-known off-shoots of the Islami Chhatra Shibir. However, the leaders of the Islami Chhatra Shibir got the invitation from the Vice-Chancellor.

The Sangrami Chhatra Oikya which is instrumental for spearheading the movement against the Vice-Chancellor vehemently condemned the convening of the meeting what it said as a covert move to divert the attention of all from the "anti-democratic activities" of the Vice-Chancellor.

A few classes were held today. A good number of teachers also attended the Chittagong University today. But the Sangrami Chhatra Oikya and Sammilito Chhatra Oikya Parishad hold rally and take out processions jeopardising the functioning of the office of Vice-Chancellor.
