

✓ 9

146

JCD wins Dhaka College union polls

By Our DU Correspondent

Bangladesh Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) nominated Sapu-Jakir-Sohag parishad on Sunday won a landslide victory bagging 20 out of 21 posts of Dhaka College Students Union. The election was held peacefully after long 7 years.

The Vice-President, General Secretary, and Assistant General Secretary elected from the JCD panel are: Mir Sarafat Ali Sapu, Jakir Hossain Jakir and Syed Majharui Huq Sohag. The only post of the College Magazine Editor was captured by a Chhatra League nominee.

BNP Secretary General Barrister Abdus Salam Talukder in a statement hailed the overwhelming majority of JCD candidates in the election to the Dhaka College Students Union. The BNP Secretary General termed it the victory of the nationalist forces.

Meanwhile, Bangladesh Chhatra League (H-A) the main competitor in the election to the Dhaka College Students Union at a news conference at the National Press Club on Monday accused the Principal of the College Nazir Uddin Ahmed and Chairman of the Election Commission Abu Syed Atiquallah of rigging votes in the polls for Chhatra Dal.

Addressing the conference, Faruque Ahmed, Convenor of the Election Committee for Chhatra League, demanded a judicial inquiry into the election results, recounting of the votes and removal of the College Principal and the Chairman of the Election Commission.