JCD blames BCL for DU club capture

Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal yesterday (Sunday) called upon teachers, students and employees of Dhaka University to unitedly resist terrorism on the campus, reports UNB.

Leaders of the ruling party's student front made the appeal during protest demonstration against reign of terror and occupation of the Dhaka University Club by gunmen on Saturday.

Addressing a rally in front of the DUCSU Bhaban, they blamed activists" of the pro-Awami League Chhatra League for the club capture.

A group of activists in battle gear stormed into the club and forced out teachers Saturday evening.

The rally was addressed by DUCSU GS. Khairul Kabir Khokon, Transport Secretary Jahangi Alam, Science Commonroom Secretary Habibul Islam Habib and central leader Ilias Ali.

Journalists were also scared away by the gunmen, led by the killers of Dr Milon, the JCD leaders alleged.

DUCSU leader Khokon said Saturday's incident reminded "us of the Mujibbadi acts in 1973-74 period."

He strongly condemned the incident and said the conscious teachers and students of the university would not tolerate such act of terrorism on the campus.

Khokon also urged the press to focus on the real incidents occurring on the campus.

Earlier, JCD leaders and activists brought out a procession on the campus chanting anti-terrorism slogans.
