

24 SEP 1990
2

8

148

JCD leader killed in Ctg

Chittagong Office

CHITTAGONG, Sept. 23:—One student leader was killed and another seriously injured in two separate incidents here today.

Shah Moazzem Hossain Mithu, a leader of the BNP student front Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) and a former General Secretary of Chittagong Polytechnique Institute Students Union was killed allegedly by workers of rival student organisation. He was stabbed and shot at after being chased by the rival group inside Chittagong Medical College Hospital premises. His body was recovered by police.

In another incident, Munirul Huq, Vice-President of the Polytechnique Institute Students Union and a JCD leader was beaten by workers of rival students organisation who chopped off his left hand inside the college premises.

Tension is now prevailing in the port city as BNP and JCD blamed Chhatra League (H-A) for the killing and assault of the JCD leaders. A case has been lodged with the Panchlaish thana.