versities are not reopened within that period.

APSU announced the programme from different rallies held at the GPO and Kamalapur Railway Station areas and Col. Taher Smriti Auditorium of the city on Sunday.

The rallies were addressed by the APSU leaders Amanullah Aman, Khairul Kabir Khokon, Habibur Rahman Habib, Nazmul Huq Pradhan, Nasir-ud-Duza, Mustasizur Rahman Babul, Abdus Sattar Khan, Mosharraf Hossain, Wahiduzzaman Chati and Anwar Hossain Mukul.

The APSU leaders threatened that the President's Secretariat will be kept under lock and key on November 8 if the demands were not fulfilled by that time.

The student leaders also urged people from all walks of life to make the November 10 hartal programme a success.

The rallies were followed by processions in the city streets.
