

Police, students clash

50 including DUCSU VP injured

Staff Correspondent

Several students including Amanullah Aman, Vice President of Dhaka University Central Students Union (DUCSU) were injured following clashes between students and the members of the law enforcing agencies at the Green Road area in the city on Thursday. About 50 students were injured, according to Sarbadaliya Chhatra Oikya Jote.

The trouble originated when a big procession, organised by Sarbadaliya Chhatra Oikya (All-Party Student Unity) which was on way to the President's Secretariat, was obstructed near Panthaphath crossing. The processionists became angry and damaged or set ablaze over a dozen vehicles. Several crackers were also exploded.

The procession was planned as a part of the anti-government movement programme and demanding reopening of all educational institutions including the country's five universities. Police reportedly opened some rounds of blank fire to disperse the angry demonstrators.

Later, the students reassembled at the Green Road area in the afternoon. DUCSU Vice President Amanullah Aman and BCL leader Habibur Rahman Habib addressed the rally reiterating their pledge to continue the united movement till the ouster of the present government paving the way for restoration of people's rule.

One police officer was reportedly injured when some angry students stoned the police. Earlier, police put barbed wire barricade at Bangla Motor crossing obstruct the procession. Later, the students changed their route and proceeded through Green Road. But all the roads towards the President's Secretariat were heavily guarded.

A big rally of the All-Party Student Unity was held in front of the Central Shaheed Minar before bringing out the procession.

Mustafizur Rahman Bulbul presided over the rally.

Speakers at the rally were bitterly critical of the government for keeping closed the educational institutions in-
