Political parties reluctant to solve campus crisis: VC

DHAKA, Aug 16: Dhaka University Vice-Chancellor Prof. M. Maniruzzaman Miah today (Friday) termed terrorism as the number one problem in educational institutions, reports UNB.

He was addressing the inaugural session of a three-day workshop of the Bangladesh Ganit Samity here today.

The VC said that the cause and nature of terrorism being political, its solution should also be in found politically.

The nation will plunge into a great crisis if the problem of campus terrorism is not resolved, he warned.

Prof. Miah lamented that there had been lack of positive response from the political parties in resolving the problem.

The function was addressed among others by prof. Riazan Ali Sardar, Prof. Khoda Dad Khan and Prof Shamsul Huq Mollah.
