

Rival student groups clash at Rajshahi Varsity

RAJSHAHI, Feb. 26 (UNB) Police broke up a clash between two rival student groups on the Rajshahi University campus today that occurred as a sequel to Sunday's gunbattle in Dhaka University in which one student was killed.

Supporters of the pro-Awami League Chhatra League and BNP's student wing Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) chased each other and exchanged brickbats. None was reported hurt.

situation could take a serious turn.

The rival groups earlier called separate rallies on the campus here to protest the Dhaka University incident.

Earlier, on Sunday, a meeting of the representatives of all student organisations, RUCSU office-bearers and university officials reached a consensus, prohibiting use of loud speakers on the campus by any group, party or individual.

The meeting, chaired by the Proctor, also agreed not to stick posters at the Shaheed Minar, Shaheed Smriti Sangrahashala, Jam-e-Masjid, Senate Hall, RUCSU office and the administrative building.
