Student leaders' surprise move to make DU terror-free

By Our DU Correspondent

In another surprise move, leaders of rival student organisations including Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal and Bangladesh Chhatra League (A-A) and its allies and DUCSU held a joint meeting with the Dhaka University authorities Monday and urged the government to make the university campus "arms and terror free".

The meeting was preceded by a meeting between Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia and leaders of All-Party Students Unity (APSU) Monday afternoon. APSU was thought to be non-existent following recent rivalries between its components.

the joint meeting that lasted about four and half hours. All provosts of university halls also attended the meeting.

The meeting also called upon the law enforcing agencies to take necessary steps for ensuring a congenial academic atmosphere on the campus.

The Vice-Chancellor of DU had been trying to hold a joint meeting for last three days.
