Students Convention today

By Our DU Correspondent

The first ever Students Convention under the umbrella of the Dhaka University Central Students Union (DUCSU) will be held at the Institution of Engineers at 10 am today (Monday).

About 5,000 student representatives from 841 colleges and universities of the country are likely to attend the Convention.

The DUCSU leaders immediately after coming to power decided to hold the Convention with a view to floating a new student movement to realise various demands of the country's students community. The DUCSU demanded establishment of a production-oriented education policy, measures to stop campus violence and resignation of the present government.

DUCSU Vice-President Amanullah Aman will preside over the convention.

The DUCSU leaders exchanged views with leaders of different student organisations and political parties and invited them to attend the convention.
