

EUTA withdraws work abstention Programme

Engineering University Teachers Association on Sunday decided to withdraw their abstention from work programme in a general meeting of the Association, an association press release said in Dhaka, reports BSS.

Earlier the teachers of the Engineering University had decided to abstain from work in protest against alleged anomalies in appointing professors in CSE department and the terrorist activities.

Contd. on page 8 col. 5

EUTA withdraws

Contd from page 1

ties of November 19.

Presided over by Dr Zashimuzzaman, President of the association, the meeting expressed satisfaction at the measures taken by the university authorities in this connection.

an
to a
The
ka U
expr
move
re
as ntial hall
y, the ex
y. The responsibility
ncies to arrest th
security and the
ould take steps if the
stay in the halls
s' Committe
nts to inform nity about our
ore security.