10 injured in Suhrawardy College

Staff Correspondent

At least 10 students were injured, one of them seriously, in a clash between the group of Jatiyabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) of Government Suhrawardy College over a previous dispute on Monday noon.

According to eyewitnesses, the rival groups suddenly locked in the clash while two supporters from warring groups exchanged hot words on the college campus.

Both the groups exploded bombs and exchanged shots from pistol and cut rifles injuring the Assistant General Secretary of the College Students' Union Nuruzzaman with bullets.

He was immediately rushed to the Dhaka Medical College Hospital and later to Rehabilitation Institute and Hospital for Disabled (RIHD) and others were released after first aid.

A student of the college said at least 20 bombs and 7 rounds of pistol and cut rifle shot sounds were heard. Following police intervention the situation became normal.

A case was registered with the Sutrapur police. None was arrested so far.
