4 injured in students clash in Comilla

COMILLA, Nov. 23:—Four students were injured, three of them seriously, in a clash between two rival groups of students of a local college here Thursday, reports UNB.

The injured were identified as Shahan, Nahid and Helal who were admitted to the General Hospital. Their condition were improving, hospital sources said.

The clash took place when Chhatra Dal activists attacked a victory procession brought out by the Chhatra League to celebrate the joining of 7 JCD members to their group.

The two groups hurled cocktails at each other injuring four. In the evening another procession brought out by the JCD activists was attacked by the Chhatra League at Laksam road. The office of JCD was also ransacked, it was alleged.

Police rushed to the spot and brought the situation under control.
