

ଅନ୍ତିମ ... ... ପ୍ରକାଶିତ ...
ପ୍ରକାଶିତ ... ...

DACCA SATURDAY AUGUST 9 1980

Massive drive for removing illiteracy

From Our Correspondent

JHENIDAH, Aug. 6:—The Subdivisional Administration has undertaken a massive programme for educating 75,505 illiterate people of Kotchandpur Police Station under Jhenidah Subdivision within the next six months.

According to the source, a meeting was held in this connection at Kotchandpur Thana Training and Development Centre recently with Mr. Khan Shahabuddin, Subdivisional Officer, Jhenidah, in the chair. Mr. Safayet Ali, Additional Deputy Commissioner (Mass Literacy.

Mr. Shahidullah Khan, Subdivisional Police Officer, Jhenidah and Mr. Ahmed Ali, Circle Officer, Kotchandpur spoke on the occasion.

The speakers called upon the people, especially the educated persons to come forward and wholeheartedly participate in the drive for removing illiteracy from this police station within the specific period.

Chairmen and members of the Union Parishads, teachers and students of schools and colleges of the locality and representatives of various voluntary organisations of the police station attended the meeting.

078