Role of teachers in removing illiteracy lauded

President Hussain Muhammad Ershad said in Dhaka on Wednesday night that the nation would always remain indebted to the teachers for their contributions in the endeavour to remove the curse of illiteracy from the society reports BSS.

Addressing over three hundred representatives of Bangladesh Jamiatul Mudarresin and Bangladesh Kazi Parishad from all over the country, when they came to meet him at the CMLA's Secretariat the President said "the efforts you have been making to spread the light of education among the people will always be remembered by the nation."

He expressed the hope that the teachers, including the Madrasa teachers would continue to play their due role along side the government initiatives in educating the people in the greater interest of the nation and the country.

The President said despite bottlenecks, the nation had marched forward to the path of self-reliance in every sphere of national life during the last four years. He said "We shall have still to go a long way to our cherished objective and Inshallah we will reach our goal."

In this context he said Allah helps those who help themselves and expressed the confidence that "if we work hard to improve our lot, the Almighty will surely shower his blessings so that we can achieve our objectives".

The delegation led by Maulana Abdul Mannan President of the Jamiatul Mudarresin reiterated their total support to the programmes and policies of President Ershad and solidarity with his leadership.
