

22 AUG 1993

The Bangladesh Times

Token strike by varsity teachers

By Our DU Correspondent

University Teachers Saturday refrained from taking classes an hour in response to the Federation of Bangladesh University Teachers' Association (FBUTA) call for an hour token strike, from Saturday.

No classes were held in any universities across the country at 10 a.m to 11 a.m on Saturday. The university teachers' will observe an hour token abstention programme throughout the country till August 26 next.

Contd. on page 8 col. 4

Token stike by Varsity

Contd. from page 1

The FBUTA called the strike demanding immediate arrest and trial of the unidentified terrorists those who assaulted a number of teachers of Jahangirnagar University on July 29 last.

Jahangirnagar University was closed sine die following the incident on July 30.