

Need for rapid spread of mass education stressed

A delegation of Islamic Mass Education Parishad of Dhaka led by Moulana Mohammad Mostafiz, founder President of the organisation, called on President Abdur Rahman B. was at Bangabhaban on Wednesday, reports BSS.

Talking to them, President Biswas emphasised the need for rapid spread of mass education and said only educated and qualified people can contribute to welfare of the society. Main objectives of education are to enlighten oneself, serve the people and achieve worldly and spiritual excellence, he said adding that one's knowledge and learning should be utilised to achieve those goals.

Contd. on page 12 col. 3

Mass education

Contd. from page 1

The leader of the delegation apprised the President about the harmful effects of the anti-Islamic propaganda by some interested quarters and stressed that measures should be taken to check such activities.

Among others, Misbahur Rahman Chowdhury, Moulana Mohammad Shamsul Haq, Qari Mohammad Masudur Rahman, Moulana Molnuddin, Sohrab Ali, Mohsin Ali, Abu Saleh Talukdar, Mohammad Zahurul Haq and Zakir Hossain were present.