

অফিস নং ১৮-মার্চ ১৯৯৬

৩১-৬

Seminar on teaching

A training course on higher secondary level trainers' training was inaugurated in the National Academy for Educational Management (NAEM), auditorium in Dhaka on Thursday.

Organised by Higher Secondary Education Project, the training course was formally inaugurated by the Adviser in Charge of the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports and Cultural Affairs Professor Md. Shamsul Huq, reports BSS.

The inaugural session was also addressed, among others, by the Additional Secretary of Education Ministry Muhammad Shahidul Islam, Director General of Secondary and Higher Education Department Professor Roseda Begum, Director General of Naem, Professor Khurshid Alam, UNDP Consultant Chris Dodgson and Project Director Professor Saleh Matin.

The Education Adviser said development of the teachers' teaching capacity and management of teaching system are essential to follow the modern teaching methodology which was recently initiated to upgrade the quality of education.

He said books and other teaching equipment which we used earlier was outdated and that is why the total educational curriculum have been changed to accept this system and follow this new curriculum.