638 expelled on 2nd day of SSC exams

By A Staff Reporter

More than 638 examinees were expelled on the second day at Secondary School Certificate (SSC) examinations from different centres under five education boards for adopting unfair means in the examination, according to different Education Board Control Rooms.

The actual number of expelled examinees would be more since a large number of examination centres could not give details to their respective education board authorities on Monday.

Of the available number of expelled candidates, 132 were
