Syllabus For Class Nine And Ten

Sir,

No, it would never be possible to have enough English teacher for appointment to every school. Therefore, the question of deriving benefit from the new English For Today, Book Seven for classes IX-X 1999 does not arise as has been proposed by Md. Alauddin Sikder, Teacher of Pancher High School, Shibpur, Madaripur in a letter that appeared on July 26, 1999 in the Bangladesh Observer.

The writer is totally wrong when he says that most of the experienced teachers in our country cannot understand this new syllabus. They do not know how to demonstrate the word in the class room and that they cannot speak fluently and also are not capable of speaking English. Had it been true then how have the teachers (Experienced?) performed fair well since 1983?

The only objection which the school teachers put up is in reality the objective part for which the old book has been cancelled. It is needless to say that since 1983 the learners have enjoyed a good book for learning English language and there was no reason in presenting a new one at the cost of crores of Taka.
