

20

তারিখ ... JUL-28 1999 ...
পৃষ্ঠা ৬ কলাম ৪

Text books distributed

The annual prize '98, text-books and school-kits distribution '99 ceremony of Chayonika Biddapith, a school run by the socio-cultural & social welfare organisation Annēysa were held at the school premises at 2/2, Purana Paltan recently, says a Press release.

The guests distributed the text-books and school kits among the students of the Biddapith for '99 and gave away the prizes to the meritorious students of the Biddapith for the year '98 at present of guardians.

It is mentionable here that the text books and school kits are supplied by Training and Technology Transfer for distribution among the students. The Biddapith had been imparting free primary education to the poor orphan and under privileged children, boys and girls since the inception of the school in July 1978.

The function was attended by Advocate M.A. Salam Talukder, Chairman, Human Rights and Legal Aid and Examination Committee Bangladesh Bar Council, BTLA and senate Member, Dhaka University as chief guest. It was also attended by Md. Mosharraf Hossain, Deputy Secretary, BTLA, A.T.M. Fazlur Rahman, Secretary Pirojpur Samity, Md. Abbasuddin, Advocate and tax consultant Bangladesh Supreme Court and Advocate Nazrul Islam, Law and Tax consultant as special guests.

The function was conducted by Romel Ferdous and Shafiqul Islam which was chaired by A.K.AI Mamun, Secretary Annēysa. The students also presented a cultural function.