DU exams begin today

Staff Correspondent

The examinations of the final year Honours and Masters degree courses of Dhaka University will begin today (Saturday) after shifting the dates of the examinations several times in the past.

A Dhaka University Press release issued on Friday said that majority of the students were interested in sitting for the examination and holding of classes on pre-schedule. But a section of so-called students, the Press release regretted was creating obstruction to the holding of examinations.

tions on schedule by resorting to repeated violence.

The Dhaka University authorities have urged the students, guardians and all concerned to help maintain peace and holding of classes and examinations in the highest seat of learning of the country. The authorities have issued stern warning against any provocation to disturb the holding of examinations.
