SSC exam 93 to be from 500 objective questions bank

The government has decided that the objective questions will be set from the bank of 500 objective questions in different subjects in the SSC examination to be held in 1993, reports BSS.

There will be no questions from outside the objective questions bank in the examination, according to a Press Note issued by the Education Ministry on Monday.

The government expressed the hope that this decision would remove all concerns created among the examinees and that they would devote themselves to studies.
