

তা'বিশ 26 AUG 1996
৩ ২ কলাম

21 hurt as BCL, JCD clash at Osmany Medical College

SYLHET, Aug 25: At least 21 students were injured and 3 of them seriously when two rival groups of students clashed at the Osmany Medical College during early hours today, reports BSS.

Police sources said the students at the Osmany Medical College were wounded in a bloody gun fight when a group of outsiders attacked the Zia Hostel at 2 am. in the night attempting to take control of the hostel.

Residents of the hostel claimed that the outsiders who attacked the hostal belong to Chhatra Dal.

The seriously wounded students undergoing identified as Baker of 5th year, Shamsuzzaman of 2nd year and Sumon Kallyan of 5th year. All the three received bullet injuries.

Police said that the situation has been brought under control. Meanwhile, Chhatra Dal and Chhatra League blamed each other for the incident.

Medical college authority formed a five member inquiry committee to probe the incident. Principal of Osmany Medical College said.

After the incident, police raided the Zia Hostel and recovered two pipe guns. 47

Contd on page 8 col 5

Osmany

Contd. from page 1

rounds of ammunition and several numbers of Ramdaos, Kiris and Draggers from the rooms of Kalloj Chowdhury, Saifur Rahman, and ATM Arif, all students of the college and activists of local unit of Chhatra Dal.