DU halls raided again : arms recovered, 10 held

By Our DU Correspondent

Dhaka Metropolitan Police launched yet another raid on all student halls, barring three occupied by girl students, of Dhaka University on Monday morning, recovered a small amount of ammunition and arrested 10 outsiders from different halls.

The ammunition recovered included 21 rounds of live ammunition, and 12 explosives.

A large contingent of police conducted the two and a half hour-long raid on 11 halls starting from 5.30 a.m. Police sealed off all entry points of the Dhaka University before it started the raid.

Of the arrested outsiders, four were from Sgt. Zahurul Huq hall, five from Shahidullah Hall and one from F.H. Hall.

Eight rounds of ammunition were recovered from Jagannath Hall, two rounds from Suryasen Hall and twelve cocktails from A.F. Rahman Hall.

The police instituted cases under arms act against the outsiders for keeping illegal arms.
