15 injured as BCL, Shibir clash at CU

Chittagong Office

CHITTAGONG, Nov. 18:—At least 15 students were injured in clashes between the supporters of the Islami Chhatra Shibir and pro-AL Chhatra League in Chittagong University today.

The two student groups locked in clashes over the release of Mohammad Nasirullah, General Secretary of University unit Islami Chhatra Shibir on bail from the Chittagong jail. Nasirullah was arrested in connection with the murder case of Aminul Islam Bakul a supporter of the Chhatra League.

To demand his release, the Shibir supporters held a rally and took out a procession in jubilation. The processionists when reached University main gate, were becomed and teased by the rival students. Following that, a clash broke out between the two groups. The police intervened and finally brought the situation under control.
