BCL factions clash at BAU

Our Correspondent

MYMENSINGH, July 29:—A tense situation has been prevailing in the Agricultural University campus since last night after a clash took place between rival factions of Bangladesh Chhatra League, student front of the ruling party.

Eye-witnesses termed the clash as a sequel to clashes and conflict took place earlier on June 16, between the rival factions over expulsion of three Chhatra League workers.

The warring factions used fire arms and bombs freely during the clash. There were chase and counter chase between the groups resulting a panicky situation on the campus in the mid-night.

None was, however, reported injured in the clashes. Police have been deployed in the campus to maintain law and order.
