Room of BCL activist ransacked at DU hall

DU Correspondent

The situation of Suryasen Hall of Dhaka University turned tense on Tuesday as a room, belonging to Bangladesh Chhatra League (S-P) activist was allegedly ransacked by some activists of Jatiyatabadi (Chhatra Dal, JCD), on Monday night.

As a result tension mounted among the activists of BCL (S-P) and JCD, in the hall.

The BCL leaders alleged the JCD activists are responsible.

for creating terrorist activities in the hall.

While, the JCD leaders, blamed the BCL activists for breaking the provision of the agreement which was earlier signed between the leaders of the both organizations.

Meanwhile DU authorities deployed more of police personnel inside and out-side of the hall to avert any further untoward situation.

Meanwhile, a meeting of Dhaka University Paribash Parishad was continuing at the residence of DU Vice-Chancellor, centering the Suryasen Hall issue, till writing the report.
