RU journalists beaten by BCL activist

Our Correspondent

RAJSHAHI, Nov. 11:—Two working journalists of Dhaka-based national dailies were seriously beaten by one Abdur Rob, said to be an worker of BCL (S-P) and a student of RU this evening in the Rajshahi University Press Club. He also ransacked the furniture of the Club.

Campus sources said, Rob entered at RU Press Club and identified himself as an activist of BCL (S-P) and put pressure on the journalists to despatch a certain news. The journalists requested him to wait but Rob started altercation with them and at one stage beat Abul Kalam Azad, Reporter of the Dainik Khabar and Sports Secretary of RU Press Club and Abdul Matin, Reporter of the Dainik Barta and Cultural Secretary of the Club. Rob also ransacked furniture of the club. Later, the journalists present at the Club succeeded in resisting Rob and handed over him to the police. Police recovered a packet of ganja from his possession.
