Strike observed in Rajshahi varsity

Our Correspondent

RAJSHAHI, Feb. 19.—A day-long strike called by the activists of Islami Chhatra Shibir in Rajshahi University was observed today peacefully.

The strike call was given by the ICS activists protesting the removal order of Prof Yusuf Ali from the post of Vice Chancellor of Rajshahi University on Monday.

The academic and administrative activities including in bank and post office on the campus remained inoperative during the strike hours.

The supporters and workers of Islami Chhatra Shibir brought out processions on the campus that paraded the campus chanting slogans against the VC removal order. After the procession they held a meeting in front of the Administrative Building which was addressed among others by Abdul Jabbar and Mainul Haq.

Protesting the VC's removal order the IES activists also announced an agitation programme on RU campus to be observed tomorrow.

Meanwhile, the Vice Chancellor of Rajshahi University Prof Abdul Khaleque in an order has removed Prof Mokhlesur Rahman from the post of Registrar of the university and appointed M Syed Mostaq Ali, Additional Registrar to act as Registrar in addition to his present duty.

The Vice Chancellor also made M Zaidur Rahman, Assistant Registrar of VC Office OSD by removing him from the post.
