JCD factions gunfight rocks DU areas

Varsity Correspondent

Two rival factions of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) exchanged at least 70 rounds of gunshots and exploded 20 crackers on the Dhaka University campus in the early hours of Sunday creating panic among the campus inmates.

The trouble erupted when "Zakir-Mamun" faction of JCD blasted some handmade bombs from Ziaur Rahman Hall to prevent a micro-bus from entering the hall at about 1.30 a.m. Although the micro-bus was carrying their activists they suspect them as their rivals and blasted the bombs.

Hearing the sound of the blast their rivals began firing gunshots from Bangabandhu Hall. Both the groups traded gunshots for about an hour breaking the silence of the night.

None was injured in the gunfight.

Immediately after the incident, police rushed to the spot. But they did not raid any hall.
