from (1) Superintending Engineer, Shechchasevak Sangatan workers to help spread the mass literacy programmes extensively throughout the country. He said that literacy programme was part of the 19-point programme of the President Ziaur Rahman. Terming illiteracy as a main obstacle in the way of development of the country, he exhorted the BJSS workers to enthusiastically participate in it.

Kazi Siraj said that the Bangladesh Shechchasevak Sangatan would primarily set up five literacy centres in the country and three in the city. He said that the workers of the Sangatan would volunteer their labour in these centres to educate the people.

Kazi Siraj cautioned that there was both national and international conspiracies to topple President Sattar. The enemies of independence and the agents of foreign powers were now using the some members of the Bangladesh Nationalist Party and trying to create division in the party. He urged President Sattar to take stern attitude towards them. He assured that the workers of the Bangladesh Shechchasevak Sangatan would always stand by him.
