AKBAR

By Muni Lal Tk. 150.00

This book gives a vivid description about the life and works of Great Mughal Emperor, Akbar. Though Akbar like other kings had heaped human heads into monstrous pyramids and staged grim massacres in the headiness of war, shocking contemporary democratic conscience—he had some difference. He was invariably penitent and sought forgiveness for the pain and misery caused. This book offers a convincing re-discovery of the greatness of Akbar.

Hermit Kingdom (Ladakh)

By Major H. P. S. Ahluwalia Tk. 700.00

For centuries, the forbidden land of LADAKH, one of the highest desert plateaus in the world remained hidden like a little cocoon, from the world outside—inaccessible because of its height, its mountains and its extreme cold. This enchanted land with its snow-covered peaks, beautiful valleys and riverside hamlets, transcendent lakes and hot springs has been recently opened to visitors.

India and the International system

By Sisir Gupta Tk. 165.00

This book critically examines India's foreign relations and Indo-Pakistan relation. Going through this book the readers will have clear concepts about the great power relations, Asian non-alignment, Sino-US detente, Pakistan's domestic crisis, Indo-Soviet treaty etc.

Muslim Women in Purdah and out of it

By Jamila Brijbhushan Tk. 85.00

This book analyses how a muslim woman is empowered in the choice of husband, easy divorce, economic independence through inheritance. All aspects of personal law—marriage, polygamy, divorce, inheritance, adoption and education are also discussed in this book in a very lucid way. The author is a freelance journalist, and has critically examined these rights and their application in full.

Non-Alignment in Contemporary International Relations

By Misra & Narayan Tk. 125.00

This book examines how the non-aligned movement is facing unprecedented challenges, from within as well as from without. This volume provides useful information about the collapse of detente and describes the continuance of power politics by the great powers. In the papers included in this volume an endeavour has been made to give fresh ideas to the movement, and to suggest new strategies for making the movement effective and productive.
