

Agri Varsity now under Education Ministry

Bangladesh Agriculture University has been brought under the Ministry of Education as it had been in the past, an official handout said, reports BSS.

Earlier, the Government had decided to bring the Agriculture University under the Education Ministry in view of the demand of the Federation of University Teachers' Association.

The Cabinet Division recently issued necessary notifications to implement the decision of the Government in this regard.