

279 JP nominees for JS polls

26 Ministers, 71 UZ Chairmen

The Jatiya Party on Tuesday announced the names of its nominees to contest the forthcoming Jatiya Sangsad elections scheduled for April 26, reports BSS.

Of the total 300 parliamentary seats the Jatiya Party on Tuesday announced the party nomination for 279 seats while decision on the remaining constituencies will be taken later, a party source said.

Seventeen full Ministers, five State Ministers and four Deputy Ministers have been included in the list of the Jatiya Party nominees. Prof T.I. M. Fazle Rabbi Chowdhury, Adviser to the President, has also been nominated by the party.

Foreign Minister Humayun Rasheed Chowdhury will seek election as the party nominee from two parliamentary seats from Sylhet proper and Sunamganj. Education Minister Prof M.A. Matin, who is also the Secretary General of Jatiya

Party, will contest from two parliamentary seats in Serajganj, his home district.

Food Minister Maj Gen Mahabbat Jan Chowdhury has got nomination for a Gopalganj seat.

The Health Minister, Maj-Gen Shamsul Huq to contest the Jatiya Sangsad election from Chandpur-two constituency. Chowdhury Khorshed Alam would be the party candidate instead of Mr Mohammaduljab in the Lakshipur-two seat. Mr Alauddin will be the Jatiya Party nominee instead of Mr Mesbahuddin Bablu in Rajshahi-one constituency while Mr Mesbahuddin Bablu is the party candidate in place of Mr Nurul Nabi Chand in Rajshahi-two constituency. Mr Salahuddin Quader Chowdhury will be party nominee in Chittagong-six constituency instead of Mr. Ziauddin Bablu. Mr. Giasuddin Quader Chowdhury is the party nominee for Chittagong-seven constituency in place of Mr Salahuddin Quader Chowdhury. Mr Anwar Zahid, JP Central Committee leader said.

Besides many former Members of the last two Jatiya Sangsad and political workers, veterans like Hajee Mohammad Danesh, Syed Azizul Huq Nanna Mia and Hashemuddin Ahmed are to contest the Sangsad polls of April 26 as candidates of the Jatiya Party.
