Asian students to hold peace confce tomorrow

Member organisations of the International Union of Students will hold a three-day conference on "Peace against Fundamentalism and Communalism" in Dhaka on December 20-22, says UNB.

Representatives from India, Pakistan, Nepal, Bhutan and host Bangladesh will take part in the conference, jointly organised by Chhatra Union, Chhatra League (M-I), Chhatra League (B-K), Chhatra Moitree, Samajtantrik Chhatra Front and Chhatra Federation, said a Press release on Saturday.

As part of the three-day meet, they will arrange two discussion meeting at Bangladesh Management Development Centre—"Fundamentalism and Communalism" on December 20 and "Education, Fundamentalism and Academic Communities" on December 21—and "open session" to be held at TSC of Dhaka University.
