// Gunbattle on DU campus: 4 injured

By A Staff Reporter

At least four Dhaka University students were injured, one of them seriously in an hour-long gunbattle between supporters of two rival students' organisations on the campus on Wednesday.

The Dhaka University campus and its adjacent areas on Wednesday evening again rocked with at least 70 rounds of gun shots fired by the warring groups during the clash.

Mr. Md. Julian, a first year post-graduate student of Marketing Department was admitted to Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) in a critical condition with bullet injury on the back.

He was later shifted to Moshakhali Chest Hospital for better treatment.

A resident of Masierda Suryasen Hall and an activist of Bangladesh Chhatra League (A-A) Jahan received bullet injury at the said hall gate in the evening.

The other injured students including, Shahidul Islam and Mostafiz of S M Hall and Bonny of Shahidullah Hall, activists of Bangladesh Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) were released after first (Contd. on page B. col. 5)

According to eyewitnesses, the clash ensued following manhandling of a Chhatra League activist by JCD workers near the Library at about noon on the day.

Supporters of both the fighting groups brought out separate processions on the campus following the clash.

They chanted slogans against armed terrorism on the campus and called upon all to resist armed terrorism.

Meanwhile, a good number of police was posted at different points of the campus since Wednesday evening.
