Gun fires in Suhrawardy College premises

Varsity Correspondent

A group of armed outsiders allegedly belonging to student wing of Jatiya Party on Thursday disrupted the installation ceremony of Suhrawardy College Student Union.

According to the witnesses, the gunmen fired several round of shots and exploded bombs inside the college premises creating panic among the students.

Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal which won the Students Union polls recently, countered the outsiders. JCD activists allegedly replied with gunfire and chased away the outsiders. The entire area turned into a mini battle field as both sides exchanged gunshots and exploded bombs for about an hour. The police personnel earlier posted around the college fired teargas shells to disperse the armed attackers. They also searched houses in the area to nab suspected gunmen. The police arrested several youngmen for their alleged involvement in the incident.

Later, the installation ceremony was held peacefully.
