Campus sources said Shahzada, an honours examinee of Psychology Department of the University, was shot at near the Surjasen Hall. He was rushed to Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) in a critical condition and later shifted to Pangu Hospital.

About 30 to 40 rounds of gunshots were heard during the clash which the sources attributed to internal conflicts in JCD.

Meanwhile, JCD organised a protest rally in front of the DUCSU Bhaban yesterday (Saturday). It was addressed by JCD leaders Rafiqul Islam Jaglu and Ali Akkas Nadim.

They blamed the Awami League-backed Chhatra League (A-A) for unleashing terror on campuses.

Chhatra League (A-A) also organised a counter-rally in front of Madhu's Canteen where student leaders Golam Mostafa Sujan and Kamruzzaman Ansari alleged that two JCD activists were injured following their intra-party conflicts.
