

অবিষ্কার 3 JUL 1991

পৃষ্ঠা 8

02

03

Suhrawardy College closed following rival students clash

All the classes of Government Shaheed Suhrawardy College will remain postponed till the restoration of congenial academic atmosphere in the college, a Press release of the College said here Monday Reuter reports BSS.

The Teachers Council of the College had decided to postpone the classes following clashes between two rival group of students Monday the press release said.

Our Staff Correspondent adds: Several persons including some students of Suhrawardy College were injured following clashes between rival groups of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) at Luxmibazar area on Monday. The clashes lasted several hours beginning around 11-30 a.m. One group is reportedly known as led by Helal while the other led by Sabuj.

The clashes began when JCD students brought out separate processions (See Page 10 Col. 2)

Suhrawardy

From Page 1 Col. 4

sions demanding holding of Suhrawardy College Students Union elections, Briek bats and crackers were used by both the groups and a tense situation was created in the area. Both the groups chanted slogans and counter slogans.

Meanwhile our SSMCH correspondent reports The injured persons who were brought to Mitford Hospital include four students of Shurawardy College. The students are Khokan (22) Nanik (23) Rahim (25) Mintu (20). Others who were admitted include Sheikh Shahjahan and Shahjahan Talukder, Rafiq (25) a rickshawpuller, Kokel Sharmin, and her mother Shahnaj (30). Kokel was going to St Francis Kaviers Girls School with her mother Shahnaj when they received injuries in cracker explosions.

When contacted Sutrapur Police said that heavy contingent of police were patrolling the area.