

VCs to meet PM soon to end campus violence

A meeting of the Standing Committee of Vice-Chancellors of the Association of Universities of Bangladesh on Saturday urged the edly to end campus violence, reports BSS.

The meeting also urged all concerned to refrain from publishing misleading reports in different newspapers on the nature of campus violence and measures to end it.

It expressed grave concern at the continuing campus violence, which it noted, had posed a threat to the country's education system.

The meeting decided that the Vice-Chancellors of the universities would soon meet Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia to evolve ways to put an end to campus violence.
