Gunshot rocks DU hall

Varsity Correspondent

Several rounds of gunshot rocked the Jagannath Hall area of Dhaka University on Friday evening after a month of lull.

According to the witnesses, about eight rounds of gunshot were fired by the two groups of youths reportedly activists of Bangladeshi Chhatra League (M-I). The incident was sequel to exchange of hot words between the two leaders of BCL (M-I) at Jagannath Hall premises on Friday noon.

One group opened fire from outside of the hall while the members of another group responded from inside. Police on duty rushed to the spot but did not enter the hall premises as the warring elements left the place.

Meanwhile, another three rounds of gunshot were heard from the direction of Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) at 6.30 p.m. on Friday. Witnesses said, some outsiders came to the outdoor ward of DMCH and opened the gunshots in the air.

The reason behind the incident could not be ascertained immediately.
