DU students burn calendar

Varsity Correspondent

A group of students set ablaze a good number copies of Dhaka University Calendar-1992-93 in protest against publishing the name of President Abdur Rahman Biswas as Chancellor of the University.

The students became angry when they saw the newly published university calendar carrying the name of Abdur Rahman Biswas as Chancellor.

They assembeled at the University Library premise from where the calendar were distributed among the students.

The youths santched away some copies of the calendar and set them on fire at Hakim Chattar near University Library.

They brought out a procession and held a rally on the campus demanding of the withdrawal of the calendar.

Addressing the rally the speakers said the President was a collaborator of Pakistani government and the Dhaka University students will never allow him as Chancellor of the University.

It was addressed by Ziaul Haq Zia and Obaidul Haq.
