Mainu, Iqbal elected BCL President, Secy

Mainuddin Hasan Mainu and Iqbalur Rahim have been elected President and General Secretary respectively of the Pro-Awami League Chhatra League, reports UNB.

Mahbubul Huq Sakeel, an honours examinee of Sociology department, was elected Organising Secretary of a 69-member new central committee constituted in the just-concluded council session of BCL, said a Press release.

The newly elected BCL President is a leader of the Chittagong University unit of the organisation, who passed M.A. in English last year.

New General Secretary Iqbalur Rahim, who appeared at the M.A. final examination from History department of Dhaka University, was a leader of the now-defunct pro-BAKSAL Jatiya Chhatra League.

The central conference was held on May 11. Over a dozen leaders contested the two posts.

Awami League selected young and talented leadership below the age group of 27 for the first time since liberation.

BCL also declared the names of Dhaka University unit President and General Secretary. The DU unit council was held on May 8.

The new leaders of DU unit are: President—Khizir Hayat Lizu, an MSS final year student of Political Science, and General Secretary—Pankaj Dev Nath, M.Sc. final year in Mathematics.

The university unit committee consists of 41 members. As many as 25 leaders ran for the two vital posts.
