Rival students clash at RU, 3 injured

RAJSHAHI, Jan 16 : A combined putsch against Shibirites erupted in the city and the Varsity campus today, leaving at least three student activists injured, one critically, reports UNB.

Azadul Islam Azad, a student of Rajshahi College and Shibir activist, was admitted to the Rajshahi Medical College Hospital where his condition was stated by attending doctors as critical.

He was attacked by some unknown assailants at Dargapara in the city. Two others, students of Rajshahi University, were injured in a clash between Shibir and Gantantrik Chhatra Oikya activists on the campus at around 11 am.

The clash started when the rivals brought out processions. They used brickbats and sticks.

Today's trouble was in a sequel to Thursday's violence at the Rajshahi Government College that left a Shibir activist dead and 40 others injured. Yahia (20), injured seriously in the clash, succumbed to his injuries at RMCH.
