JCD-BCL clash Barisal Medical College closed sine die

BARISAL, Dec. 6.—Sher-e-Bangla Medical College has been closed sine die following a clash between two rival student groups here today, according to official sources here, reports BSS.

All students were asked to leave their hostels by 5 pm today.

The decision of closure was taken at an emergency meeting of the Academic Council of Sher-e-Bangla Medical College today.

The clash ensued following alleged derogatory remarks about top BNP leaders in a wall paper published by Chhatra League. Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal strongly protested against the remarks.

Both the student groups brought out processions and rallies which culminated into clashes. About 20 students were injured and four students belonging to JCD were admitted to Sher-e-Bangla Medical College Hospital following the clash.

Nine rooms of hostel No. 3 were ransacked and four others set on fire, the sources said.

The police have arrested 10 students from the spot. Tension is still prevailing in the college area.
