

DU students arrested for terrorism

By A Staff Reporter

Police on Wednesday arrested three Dhaka University students, allegedly, involved in terrorist activities on DU campus, along with a pistol.

The arrested are: Tareqzaman alias Utpal (24), Sarwar Ahmed alias Tipu (24) and A. K. M. Solaiman alias Omi (25).

According to DMP, sub-inspector Abdul Halim, who was on duty in TSC area, on a secret information challenged three youngmen moving in the area suspiciously. The youngmen in a bid to escape entered the Suhrawardy Uddyan and fired one round of gun shot at the police. The sub-inspector radioed the control room which immediately asked other police officials in the area to cordon the Uddyan. Utpal was arrested from inside the Suhrawardy Uddyan. His two accomplices—Litu and Omi tried to escape by an autorickshaw from in front of the Institute of Engineers. When police chased them, miscreants fired two shots at them. But they were intercepted near the Shishu Park and arrested. Police recovered a foreign pistol along with six rounds of ammunition. A case was instituted with the Ramna police under Arms Act against the arrested trio.
